- Minutes of August 16, 2017, Meeting

Motion made and accepted to approve. (Parente/Mayes, unanimous)

- Public Comment

Commissioner Mayes informed the board that BJSA would like to generously donate funds for a scoreboard at Nas-sahegan. He will work with Tricia moving forward on this project.

- Financial Report

Budget in line for 2018, no issues to report.

- Budget currently at 44% used
- Town spending freeze still in place
- $65,000 in revenue returned to town General Fund.

- Fall Programming

- Red Ribbon Week: October 23-31
- Spooktacular October 28th 1-3pm at Johnnycake
- Monster Mash for 5th graders: October 20th 7:30pm Courtside
- Scarecrow Contest: All contestants must register by October 20th. Park and Rec Commissioners will help judge
- Holiday Sing: December 6th 7pm Town Green
- All current programs doing well
- Trying to start a Zumba Class in the Winter
- Hoping to have a Winter Vacation Camp Day; however due to budget cuts schools are limiting weekend use of building. This may affect other programming held in the schools. Waiting to see how the budget unfolds.

- Facilities Update

- Fields and facilities currently looking great.
- We've had very little field closures this fall due to cooperative weather

- Johnnycake Mountain Park Discussion

- Burlington Land Trust will be hosting walks at Johnnycake this weekend October 7,8, and 9 from 1-3 each day
- Our mission is to have residents enjoying the park as soon as possible
